

MALYNDA D.
WHITELEY
(1959 - 2019)

Malynda passed away very unexpectedly at her home in Fairfax, Virginia. Malynda's two Shih-tzus, Bijou and Dindi whom she loved very much, were adopted thereafter by Joey Inabnet of ICR.

Malynda grew up in California. She moved to Minnesota where she completed her college education at the St. Cloud School of Business where she received her degree for court reporting. Soon after, Malynda moved to Kentucky to start her new career as a court reporter. Malynda later moved to Fairfax, Virginia, where she continued her career and eventually started her own company, MDW Court Reporting, Inc. in 1998.

Malynda was a well-known, well-respected court reporter within the court system in Virginia, Maryland, and greater DC area.
